

Sorø Ole Bjerregaard

khid@knudholscher.dk
www.knudholscher.dk

H-line Shelf

The main idea of the H-Line shelf is that the bearing part of the shelf looks like the backside of a book. This part will disappear between the other books that are placed on the shelf and create an overall floating look.

The shelf itself is held free of the wall and the space between the wall and the shelf, creates access for i.e. electrical wires.

Client: Sorø
Ole Bjerregaard
Product:
H-line Shelf

